Ocala, Fla., March 3rd.
Editor, Star: The annual meeting of the Marion County Hospital Association will be held at the hospital next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Below we give a list of contributing members who are entitled to participate in the proceedings and vote in the election for officers for the coming year.

We urge that these members attend the meeting. Our institution desires not only financial aid, but moral support. We want the members to know what is going on, and what disposition is being made of their contributions. We invite suggestions and criticisms. If our institution is to go on, there must be general support by the people, financially and morally. The attendance of any citizen is welcome, although he may not be a contributing member, for this institution belongs to Marion county and is conducted for the benefit of its people.

HAMPTON-WILLIAMS

The following report from the Atlanta Constitution of a wedding in Charleston will be of interest to our people, the more so because the groom, Mr. Hampton, is a brother of Mrs. Allison Wartmann of Ocala, who with her husband attended the ceremony:

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Wade Williams, of Charleston, and Foster Martin Hampton, of St. Louis, was a brilliant event of Saturday evening in Charleston, which had also its wide social interest in Atlanta, the former home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Henry Williams of Charleston, who was Miss Vadie Goode.

The ceremony took place at Trinity church, which was elaborately decorated with palms, smilax and ascension lilies.

The bride, a beautiful young girl with dark hair and eyes, was lovely in her wedding gown of ivory satin and duchess lace, its fashion simple and graceful. The wedding veil, of rare lace, was the gift of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Samuel Watkins Goode of Atlanta. The bridal bouquet, of roses and valley lilies, was showered with roses and white ostrich tips. Wyley Hampton of Morton, Miss., was best man, and the officiating minister was Rev. M. Cauthorn, formerly of Atlanta, now of Trinity church, Charleston.

Following the ceremony, a beautiful reception was held at the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Williams on East Battery, fronting the historic harbor of Charleston, with Fort Sumter directly opposite.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Hampton and Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hampton of Fordyce, Ark., received the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Hampton left at midnight for New York, and later will make their home in St. Louis.

The bride, who is a graduate of Ashley Hall, Charleston, and Spring Side, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, has been much admired in the social life. Mr. Hampton, who is a broken, is a graduate of Andover, '12, and of Yale, '16.

Members of his family who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Minor Hampton of Fordyce, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. Wyley Hampton, of Morton, Miss.; Miss Mary Frances Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. Alison Wartmann, of Ocala, Fla.

PARTY FOR MRS COX

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bullock yesterday was the scene of one of the largest and most brilliant parties that has been given this season when Mrs. T. S. Trantham entertained in honor of Mrs. Eugene Cox of Atlanta, who is visiting her relatives here.

The Bullock home was unusually charming with its beautiful floral decorations and shaded lights. The lower floor was opened en suite and with its delicate tracery of fern and profusion of roses made the place a veritable spring bower for the charming party.

Mrs. E. L. Carney in her gracious manner welcomed the guests at the door. Mrs. H. M. Hampton took them to the punch table, which was presided over by Mrs. Alison Wartmann. The punch table was placed on the landing of the stairs in the entrance hall and was unusually lovely with its crystal bowl and decorations of fern and waxy orange blossoms.

Mrs. Trantham, the hostess of the afternoon, presented the guests to Mrs. Cox and Mrs. E. L. Wartmann of Citra, mother of the honoree, who stood just inside of the reception room.

Auction being the game for the afternoon, tables were placed in the reception room, library, dining room and entrance hall, there being ten tables of auction and two for ruck. The score cards were distributed among the guests by two dainty little maids, Josephine Trantham and Bettie Wartmann, who were attractively dressed in blue and pink.

The hostess was assisted during the afternoon by her mother, Mrs. Raymond Bullock and her sister, Miss Musie Bullock. After the spirited games, which were so thoroughly enjoyed by all, it was found that Miss Lois Livingston and Mrs. G. C. Shephard were the fortunate holders of top scores, respectively, of auction and ruck and to them were presented dainty pieces of lingerie and also to the guest of honor was presented a like gift.

At the conclusion of the games a two-course supper was served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Annie MacKay, Mildred Bullock and Mrs. C. E. Ahern. The refreshments consisted of chicken salad, olives, cheese straws, wafers, ice cream in slim glasses and cake, and on each plate were fragrant sprays of sweet peas and nasturtiums. During the last course little Josephine Trantham and Bettie Wartmann passed crystalized grapefruit peel, attractively tied with blue ribbon.

Those who were recipients of Mrs. Trantham's hospitality and played during the afternoon were: Mrs. E. L. Carney, Mrs. C. E. Ahern, Mrs. Howard Hitchings, Mrs. H. A. Waterman, Mrs. E. G. Lindner, Mrs. Rex Todd, Mrs. H. C. Dozier, Mrs. Maude Horne, Mrs. G. C. Shephard, Mrs. J. C. Johnston, Mrs. W. T. Gary, Mrs. T. E. Bridges, Mrs. J. K. Dickson, Mrs. J. W. Hood, Mrs. B. F. Condon, Mrs. L. E. Futch, Mrs. Paul Simmons, Mrs. E. G. Peek, Mrs. J. D. Robertson, Mrs. F. H. Logan, Mrs. H. B. Clarkson, Mrs. Anna Holder, Mrs. Sidney Haile, Mrs. E. L. Carney, Mrs. Bert Dosh, Mrs. Charles Rheinauer, Mrs. Harry Walters, Mrs. Clarence Camp, Mrs. Fitch, Mrs. M. E. Lloyd, Mrs. Harry Borland, Mrs. Grider Perkins, Mrs. E. T. Helvenston, Mrs. J. W. Dumas, Mrs. Burdell, Mrs. Emanuel Martin, Mrs. J. W. Rowntree and Miss Lucille Robinson, Anne Swaim, Katherine Pyles, Mamie Taylor, Annie Davis, Katherine and Lois Livingston, Mary McDowell, Mary Evans, Sue Moore, Mary Platt, Mabel Meffert, Alice Bullock, Meme Davis and about twenty-five friends who came for the refreshment hour.

INFORMAL AND ENJOYABLE

In honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. David Bloch of Augusta, Ga., Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Creson were at home to their friends last evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. The affair was most informal, invitations being only issued through the local press.

Mr. and Mrs. Creson met the callers at the door and introduced them to the honorees, who stood in the living room. Those assisting during the evening were Mrs. L. M. Murray, Mrs. H. A. Waterman and Mrs. Sydney Haile. Mrs. W. W. Condon poured tea and Miss Mary McDowell cocoa, at a lovely appointed table in the dining room, while Misses Mildred Bullock, Marian Meffert, Margaret Gerig and Helen Newsom served sandwiches and cakes.

The house was tastefully decorated with quantities of dogwood, nasturtiums and sweet peas. Although the affair was of an informal nature, it proved most pleasant to the numbers of friends who called during the evening, and who were given this opportunity of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Bloch.
